Carolina Christian Academy

STRATEGIES EMPLOYED IN HELPING STUDENTS WITH SPECIAL NEEDS.

In collaboration with parents, Carolina Christian Academy develops individual plans consisting of services and accommodations for those students who have been diagnosed with a special need or students who have a special need that becomes apparent in the course of a school year.

These plans emerge from the joint efforts of parents, teachers, counselors, the principal and administrator. These IEP or 504 type plans are produced through comprehensive input, including recommendations by parents and school personnel, giving due consideration to existing IEP's and taking into consideration the diagnosis by medical and/or professional individuals.

Component parts of these plans include (but are not limited to):

- One-on-one instruction
- Alternate instructional level
- Alternative curriculum
- Audio and/or video recording of classroom instruction
- Digital access to homework assignments
- Modified homework assignments
- Supplemental online instruction
- Alternate test setting
- Lengthened or untimed test time
- Oral testing
- Alternative or modified test
- Large print testing and assignments
- Interactive etextbooks
- Small group instruction
- In-house administration of ACT if approved for accommodations
- Speech therapy

Educational Credit for Exceptional Needs Children (ECENC) Application 2016-2017

Independent School Name: CAROLINA CHRISTIAN ACADEMY

An independent school applying for or continuing to participate in the Educational Credit for Exceptional Needs Children Program for Fiscal Year 2016-17 is required to submit the following information:

Student test scores, by category, on national achievement or state standardized tests, or both, for all grades tested and administered by the school.

In working with its nine-member advisory committee, the EOC has determined that, to maintain student privacy and to recognize the educational needs of students, each school must submit the following:

- Summative assessment data from the 2015-16 school year that documents for each grade tested and for each grade with at least 10 students in the grade, the English language arts (reading) and mathematics achievement of students in the grade. Examples include: TerraNova, Stanford 10, Iowa Test of Basic Skills, etc.
- For schools with less than 10 students per grade level, whole school results should be used for reporting purposes.
- For grades 9-12, the school may provide average PSAT, SAT, ACT, or other scores as appropriate.
- For Support Level III schools, those schools that specifically exist to meet the need of only exceptional needs students with documented disabilities, the EOC will work with the Support Level III schools to provide information (including formative assessments, portfolios, etc.) that document the students' academic and social development
- Please DO NOT provide personally identifiable student information.

The following is a template that you may use for reporting purposes. For questions, contact the EOC.
