Educational Credit for Exceptional Needs Children Program: Education Oversight Committee's Responsibilities and Results Fiscal Year 2016-17

Statutory Authority

Proviso 109.15. of the 2016-17 General Appropriation, Act 284 of 2016, authorized the Educational Credit for Exceptional Needs Children (ECENC) Program for Fiscal Year 2016-17. The ECENC Program was first established by proviso in the Fiscal Year 2013-14 General Appropriation Act.

For Fiscal year 2016-17, the General Assembly authorized a total of $12 million in tax credits for this program. First, a total of $10 million in contributions may be made to the Educational Credit for Exceptional Needs Children Fund. Another $2 million was authorized for individuals making tuition payments on behalf of qualifying students.

The Educational Credit for Exceptional Needs Children Fund is separate and distinct from the State general fund. The fund is organized by the Department of Revenue as a public charity. Monies contributed to the fund provide scholarships for exceptional needs children attending eligible schools. A board of five directors, appointed by the Governor and members of the General Assembly based upon the recommendations of the South Carolina Association of Christian Schools, the Diocese of Charleston, South Carolina Independent Schools Association and the Palmetto Association of Independent Schools, grant the scholarships. The directors of the fund also designate an executive director. The proviso expressly prohibits the appropriation of public funds to the Educational Credit for Exceptional Needs Children Fund. The public may access information and apply to the program at <https://exceptionalsc.org/>. In prior fiscal years, nonprofit scholarship funding organizations received refundable tax credits and made tuition grants.

In addition to the creation of the Educational Credit for Exceptional Needs Children Fund, there were two other significant changes in the program in 2016-17. First, the maximum amount of scholarship grants increased from $10,000 to $11,000 per eligible child. And, second, the definition of an eligible school was amended to require independent schools to provide "a specially designed program or learning resource center to provide needed accommodations based on the needs of exceptional needs students or provides onsite educational services or supports to meet the needs of exceptional needs students, or is a school specifically existing to meet the needs of only exceptional needs students with documented disabilities." Proviso 109.15 is documented in Appendix A.

Proviso 109.15. expressly charges the Education Oversight Committee (EOC) with determining if an independent school meets the eligibility requirements for which it may receive contributions from a nonprofit scholarship funding organization for which the tax credit allowed by this proviso is allowed. Specifically, for Fiscal Year 2016-17 the law requires:

1. Schools may apply to the EOC to participate in the program on or before August 1;
2. The EOC develop an application for schools that includes at a minimum:
 - the number and total amount of grants received in the preceding fiscal year;
 - student test scores, by category, on national achievement or state standardized tests, or both, for all grades tested and administered by the school receiving or entitled to receive scholarship grants pursuant to this chapter in the previous fiscal year;
 - a copy of a compilation, review, or compliance audit of the organization's financial statements, conducted by a certified public accounting firm; and
 - a certification by the independent school that it meets the definition of an eligible school as that term is defined in subsection (A)(1) and that the report is true, accurate, and complete under penalty of perjury in accordance with Section 16-9-10.
3. The EOC may extend the August 1 deadline upon a school demonstrating good cause;
4. The EOC must publish by September 1 on its website the list of independent schools meeting the eligibility requirements, the schools' contact information, test scores; and audit information.
5. The EOC must also work with the nine-member advisory committee to make recommendations on the program's implementation.

The following is a report that documents the steps taken and results of the EOC's administration of the Educational Credit for Exceptional Needs Children (ECENC) Program for Fiscal Year 2016-17.

Application Process for Independent Schools

On June 9, 2016, the EOC staff communicated in writing and via email to all schools that had participated in the ECENC program in Fiscal Year 2015-16 the following information:

- A letter from the Executive Director of the EOC explaining the application process for Fiscal Year 2016-17;
- A copy of Proviso 109.15; Four documents to be completed as part of the application. Copies of the four documents are in Appendix B. These documents were also posted online; and
- Schools were asked to provide a statement of services provided to meet the needs of exceptional needs children to comply with changes in the law.

Date	Action
June 9, 2016	EOC staff notified independent schools of application process
July 13, 2016	EOC posts online list of 59 approved schools and thereafter posts weekly updates. Names and contact information of approved schools also forwarded directly to Department of Revenue.
September 1, 2016	109 schools approved for participation in ECENC program in 2016-17.
September 2, 2016	110 schools approved.
September 19, 2016	1 additional school approved.

To date, only one applicant has been denied participation. The applicant was not a member in good standing of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, the South Carolina Association of Christian Schools, or the South Carolina Independent Schools Association.

As of September 1, two schools had begun but not completed the application process. One of the schools submitted its final documentation, a compliance review, on September 2 and was approved. On September 19, 2016 a school that had previously never participated in the program was approved, increasing the total number of approved schools to 111 (Appendix C). Table 1 documents the number of schools approved over time by the EOC.

Fiscal Year	Number of Schools
2016-17	111
2015-16	117

Note: In 2015-16 101 schools were approved on September 1, 2015 and another 16 approved pursuant to Joint Resolution H.4633 (R.139) of 2016.

Of the 111 schools that have been approved in 2016-17, 95 reported receiving tuition grants from non-profit scholarship organizations in the prior fiscal year, and 16 reported not receiving any tuition grants. Table 2 summarizes the number of grants and total amount of grants awarded by non-profit scholarship funding organization as reported by schools applying for participation in the program in 2016-17. There were five schools that reported receiving grants from more than one non-profit scholarship funding organization. Approximately, 1,626 grants were received totaling just over $10 million. Appendix D is a list of grants by independent school.

As in the previous years, the EOC staff encountered problems with data security. Several schools submitted information that included individual student test data while others provided the names of individual students who received scholarship grants in the prior fiscal year. Upon receiving the personally identifiable information, the information was either shredded or the names redacted.

The credit must be claimed on the return for the tax year that the contribution is made.

(b) A taxpayer may not claim more than sixty percent of his total tax liability for the year in contribution toward the tax credit authorized by subsection (H)(1) or subsection (I). This credit is not refundable.
