Mission Statement or Philosophy: To nurture students' spiritual and intellectual growth in an authentically Catholic community committed to academic excellence.

School History: St. Francis Catholic School is an inter-parochial elementary school located in Hilton Head, South Carolina. The school, which shares a ten acre campus with St. Francis by the sea Catholic Church, is located three miles from the South Carolina mainland. St. Francis is the only Catholic elementary school located in the city of Hilton Head Island and serves students from two local parishes. St. Francis opened in 1996 as a school for pre-kindergarten and kindergarten level students. These classes were housed in the parish Family Center. Grades one through three were added the following year and a grade was added each year until the first eighth grade class graduated in 2004. The current school building was built in the late nineties. An arts center was added in 2008, and a multi-use facility, including a gymnasium, and auditorium was completed in 2010.
